The California Department of Housing and Community Development Announces $36 Million to Help Expand Housing, Community and Economic Development Opportunities

Sacramento - Today the Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) announced awards to help California communities through the federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program.

The CDBG program provides financial assistance to communities to address a wide range of urgent public needs, such as water delivery expansions and waterline installations. Other funding activities include health and safety improvement projects like senior daycare facilities, fire stations and medical clinics. A total of $36 million has been awarded to 23 cities and counties throughout the State.

“As HCD continues to focus on alleviating the economic strain in struggling communities, these awards will help cities and counties build stronger neighborhoods and provide vital services to keep their residents safe and healthy,” said HCD Director, Claudia Cappio.

HCD administers the distribution of CDBG funds, from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), to smaller and rural communities that often lack access to other types of financial resources. In addition to public works projects and health and safety improvements, these awards will also provide homebuyer assistance and rehabilitation of substandard housing for residents.

A listing of awarded jurisdictions and the scope of their projects is on the following page.

The California Department of Housing and Community Development is dedicated to the preservation and expansion of safe and affordable housing so more Californians have a place to call home. Our team works to ensure an adequate supply of housing for Californians and promotes the growth of strong communities through its leadership, policy and program development.
